

List of VCKC Kayaks

Most VCKC single kayaks are found in the VCKC clubhouse basement storage area. The club kayaks are straight ahead as you come into the basement from the side door. Kayaks #7 and #8 are stored in the outside compound in the rack closest to the outside door.

Updated Nov 2021

NO	TYPE	WIDTH	LENGTH	SKEG OR RUDDER	WEIGHT (LBS)
1	P & H Scorpio II MV – Stable and manoeuvrable boat, excellent for new and experienced paddlers.	23"	17'3"	skeg	67.1
2	P & H Scorpio II LV – Stable and manoeuvrable boat, excellent for new and experienced paddlers. Recommended for smaller paddlers.	21"	16'8"	skeg	61.5
3	Current Design Sirocco – exceptional manoeuvrability but not stable for the new kayaker.	23"	16'10"	skeg	59.7
4	Boreal Design Inukshuk – easy to paddle in a straight line. Stability is average.	23.5"	17'	rudder	65 (est)
5	Necky Kyook - good choice for new paddlers. Stable, good manoeuvrability. This kayak can handle a bigger paddler.	25"	15'	rudder	65.7
6	Necky Narpa - good choice for new paddlers. Stable, good manoeuvrability. This kayak can handle a bigger paddler. Faster than the Kyook.	24"	16'5"	rudder	65.0
7	North Shore Atlantic LV - Excellent all round kayak. Stability is average. Recommended for smaller paddlers. Stored in the outside compound , on rack E7.	21.5"	15' 11"	skeg	64.0
8	NDK Sportive - Excellent all round kayak. Stable, tracks well. Recommended for smaller paddlers. Stored in the outside compound , on rack E8.	21"	15'7"	skeg	57.2